

About Gravitast Technology

Gravitast Technology is a leading technology provider to the alternative investment industry and to financial services companies. Founded in 1996, Gravitast today provides business consulting services, software development and systems integration to hedge funds, private equity funds, brokerage firms, investment banks, traditional asset management firms and small and medium sized financial services firms. Gravitast is focused on providing clients with creative solutions to make their firms more efficient through outsourcing, colocation, disaster recovery and other innovative technological solutions. The company is based in New York with offices in Greenwich, Connecticut, Mumbai and Ahmedabad, India. www.gravitasttechnology.com.